News of the Current Moment in Adidam's Sacred History

Welcome to the fall 2009 issue of The Northwest Adidam Advocate. In this issue we are pleased to connect our readers with this most significant moment in the sacred history of Adidam.

The last month has seen the publication of Avatar Adi Da's last Work, The Aletheon—a monumental Scripture, which He Himself called His "First and Foremost" Book. Jonathan Condit introduces the section on The Aletheon in our newsletter, followed by several excerpts, as well as information about how to purchase this magnificent Text.

We are also pleased to share with you a story by devotee Donald Webley. Donald speaks about how His Master's Passing affected him. His story honors the upcoming celebration—The Supreme Sovereign-Avataric Holy Celebration of the Eternal Presence of the Divine Avataric Master, Parama-Sapta-Na Adi Da Love-Ananda Samraj—which concludes the One-Year Vigil following Avatar Adi Da's Divine Mahasamadhi, November 27, 2008, on the Island of Naitauba in Fiji.

Ruchiradama Quandra Sukhapur Rani (senior member of the Naitauba Ruchira Sannyasin Order) has invited all devotees (and also those who are not devotees but who are heart-Attracted to Beloved Bhagavan) to come to Adi Da Samrajashram during the period of October 27 through November 30 to participate in a most ecstatic sacred celebration. She says, "This extraordinary span of celebration will be the period in which we honor the Boundless Divine Gifts received and heart-embrace the sacred responsibilities inherent in the Divine Eternal Master's Passing out of Embodied Existence."

Should you be moved to make this pilgrimage to Adi Da Samrajashram, please contact us immediately.

Finally, we invite you to several events at the Seattle Adidam House this fall that will focus on the significance of the Divine Mahasamadhi and how that event has magnified the Blessings of the Divine Avataric Master. We hope to hear from you.

The Aletheon

Jonathan Condit, senior Adidam editor, speaks about The Aletheon:

"The Divine Avatar's work on The Aletheon ended on the very day of [Avatar Adi Da's] Passing. On November 19, 2008, He said that He felt His writing of The Aletheon had come to completion. After that, He never again raised a pencil to write more for the book—except on the morning of November 27, when He called for the title page of The Aletheon and finalized the wording on that page, thereby forever bringing to a close His final great writing-labor of love."

Excerpts from The Aletheon

From “The Infinite Divine Current That Shines In The Human Body-Mind”

By His Divine Presence, Avatar Adi Da Samraj

In Truth, and in Reality—all bodies are My Body.

In Truth, and in Reality—all beings are My Very Self.

Therefore, I Do the Universal Divine Transcendental Spiritual “Practice” of the Whole—and I Do the Divine Transcendental Spiritual “Practice” of every part and every being within the whole.

I Meditate all (and All)—and (Thereby, Most Ultimately) I Divinely En-Light-en all (and All), by (Actually, Really) Being all (and All).

Therefore, My Divine Avataric Work is in every place, and in every being, and in every “thing”—until the Divine Translation of the entire Cosmic Mandala of all places, and all beings, and all “things”.

From “The Boundless Self-Confession”

By His Divine Presence, Avatar Adi Da Samraj

My Divine Avataric Self-Revelation Transcends all cosmic appearances.

I Am the Breakthrough of That One Who Intrinsically Transcends all cosmic appearances.

I Am the Direct Divine Avataric Self-Revelation and Self-Incarnation of That Which Transcends all-and-All—not merely in the future, not merely in a “cause-and-effect” sense, but Intrinsically.

Reality Itself Is Always Already The (One and Only) Case...

All have been Meditated by Me.

All have been Embraced by Me.

Now, on the basis of whole-bodily-responsive devotional recognition of Me, all limitations can be shed.

That Is how the Process Works in My Divine Avataric Company.

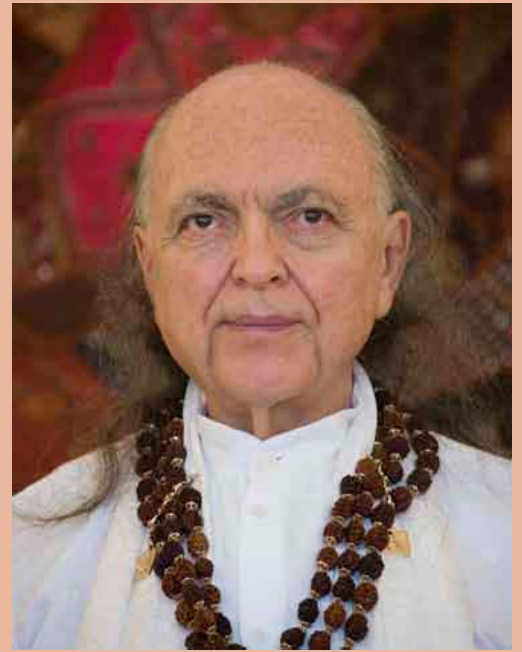

That Is the Process for the future.

The Nature of My Divine Avataric Work, As It Has Been, must be proclaimed and understood.

It Is a Divine Work.

I have Accomplished It.

Now I can be devotionally recognized, and the Real Process can become Transformative for humankind as a whole.

His Divine Presence,
Avatar Adi Da Samraj

To receive Avatar Adi Da’s Word is to be Addressed not as a separate “self”, but as What you Really Are. To receive His Word is to be Offered His Transmission of Perfect (and Perfectly Love-Bliss-Full) egolessness.

—The Editors, The Aletheon

Reading The Aletheon in its entirety is pure ego-dissolving intimacy with Bhagavan Adi Da Samraj. I distinctly felt how immersion in this Text is direct Communion with Bhagavan, in His Room. Each day of study was an ordeal and ecstasy of conformity to His Pattern—He simply Requires the subordination of the “I”-“other” paradigm, I couldn’t bring “me” into the conversation! And I viscerally experienced how depthful participation in His Aletheon-Transmission actually prepared the nervous system to fully receive the Divine Self-Confession of Reality Itself, Appearing as Bhagavan Adi Da.

—Proofreader, The Aletheon

The Lesson of Life From “Alpha/Omega” By His Divine Presence, Avatar Adi Da Samraj

The Non-conditional Reality is modified (but only apparently) as the conditional reality. This must be Realized. Until This Truth is Realized, all conditional “experience” is a school with a single Lesson. This is the Lesson of Life: “I” cannot become Happy — “I” can only Be Happy.

The “self”-contracted being (or conditional “I”) seeks Happiness conditionally, by pursuing and depending on conditions, “objects”, and “others”. This is an error, and the fault is profound.

Happiness is not a characteristic of conditional reality itself, but Happiness (or Love-Bliss) is an Inherent Characteristic of the Non-conditional (or Divine) Reality Itself. And the conditional reality is always a modification of the Non-conditional Reality.

Happiness (or Love-Bliss) Is Inherent in the Non-conditional (or Always Already) Condition of Reality — and, Therefore, It must be Inherently (and Most Perfectly, and not merely conditionally) Realized.

I do not Call My devotee to become Happy by strategically separating body, emotion, or attention from conditions, “objects”, and “others”.

I do not say: Be dissociatively unmoved under all conditions and in all relations.

Rather, I Call My devotee to transcend the conditional and egoic “self”-contraction under all conditions and in all relations.

I Call My devotee to turn to Me moment to moment — and, thus and thereby, to transcend “self”-contraction under all conditions and in all relations.

Therefore, I Call My ego-transcending devotee to Be Happy, by to-Me-responsively relinquishing un-Happiness itself — which is only “self”-contraction itself — under all conditions, and in all relations, and always by Means of ego-transcending devotional Communion with Me. Without dissociative strategy, but only by responsively devotionally turning to Me, Me-Realizing Happiness (Itself) Intrinsically (and, Ultimately, Inherently Perfectly) Transcends all conditions and all conditional relations.

Inherent Happiness (or Love-Bliss) is Realized Prior to — but not by strategically excluding — conditions, conditional “objects”, and conditional relations. Inherent Happiness (or Love-Bliss) is Realized in the context of present relationship (or under present conditions), when the “self”-contraction is utterly relinquished.

And, in the only-by-Me Revealed and Given Reality-Way of Adidam, that relinquishment is not a matter of strategic ego-effort (or the search that dramatizes “self”-contraction), but it is a matter of devotionally Me-recognizing and devotionally to-Me-responding (and responsively ego-surrendering, and ego-forgetting, and effectively ego-observing, ego-understanding, and ego-transcending) participatory resort to My “Brightly” Attractive Avatarically-Born bodily (human) Divine Form.

Life, in its Ultimate Fullness, is the Ordeal of right, true, and full Real-God-Love, even the Ordeal of the heart under extreme conditions.

The price of Happiness in every moment is release of “self”-contraction (and release of the search to acquire, hold on to, or strategically escape the conditions of conditional existence). This release is possible only if there is most fundamental “self”-understanding.

And that most fundamental “self”-understanding may be Fulfilled, Most Ultimately and Most Perfectly, only by Me-Distracted devotional Communion with Me, the Divinely Avatarically Self-Revealed Person of Reality Itself, Truth Itself, and Love-Bliss Itself.

How to Purchase The Aletheon

The Aletheon should not be reduced to being merely a Book of Teachings, abstracted from Me as Teachings. Yes, It is Teachings, but It is a Self-Revelation of My Own Person and State. So It is of Me, As Me, about Me—and Is Me.

That is the Nature of This Text. It is a Unique Holy Book, and It is not merely Teachings. It cannot be abstracted from Me. So It is My Divine Avataric Self-Revelation

Afterword

Donald Webley, a longtime devotee living in Lake County, California, shares his experience surrounding Avatar Adi Da's Passing. Watch for Donald's full story, to be published soon in the Adidam Revelation online Magazine.

On November 27, 2008, on the Fijian island of Naitauba, Avatar Adi Da Samraj suddenly abandoned the Body. The relationship between the Divine Avatar's devotees and Avatar Adi Da has always been paradoxical.

The purpose of His Birth, Life, and Work, as He never ceased to remind us, was to Establish the Means for direct communion with That One Who utterly transcends everything, including His Own Divine Form. On the other hand, that revelation and Divine Work were accomplished through and as His Own Human Form. Thus, in the Reality-Way of Adidam Ruchiradam, in common with all traditional esoteric practices, Darshan, or sighting of the Guru, is prized above all else. And like all devotees who were thus Blessed, I remembered my human interactions with Avatar Adi Da as being moments of joy and happiness without any equal whatsoever.

Avatar Adi Da had always said that He would take His Divine Mahasamadhi the instant His Work was done, neither a moment before nor a moment later, and that it would be sudden, that He would not foretell it, and that the time would not be foreseeable by devotees. So it was.

At the moment of His Passing, I was meditating in the Communion Hall of His Ashram on the Northern California coast. I felt such a remarkable invasion of His very characteristic Blessing Force that I determined to write to Him after the meditation.

Of course, that was not to be. I left for His Hermitage Island of Naitauba on the earliest flight that was available to me, in a whirlwind of conflicting feelings. Even though I continued to feel His Presence very strongly in meditation and daily life, there was an open wound of loss and sadness. My pilgrimage to Naitauba was, in my feeling, a necessary, but unwelcome obligation. I expected to be overwhelmed with sadness, and to be around others, likewise, drowning in sorrow. I wanted my visit to be brief. It was not to be so.

It was clear as I stepped off the boat that His Divine Presence continued to Pervade His Island of Naitauba as It always had. This was the experience of my fellow devotees as well. So, while there was great sadness, it was commingled with great joy—the happiness of knowing that yes, Avatar Adi Da's Divine Blessing utterly transcends and is victorious over death, as He had always Said It Is and would be.

It was also useful to me, in confirming His utter Mastery of all things manifest, to discover that even though, as He had always warned us, He would leave without a word to us, that He did leave many clear signs that, after his death, in retrospect, were clear pointers that His Divine Mahasamadhi would follow shortly.

In the months that have followed, what was revealed on that pilgrimage to Naitauba has been confirmed: even though I catch myself looking at Adi Da's picture and realizing that I will never see Him in the flesh again, my intimacy with Him and the immediate availability of His Divine Blessing have not changed.

When I allow myself to feel the depth and profundity of His Gifts and of His Revelation, my heart breaks in gratitude that I was graced to be born in the time and place of the Perfect Incarnation of the Divine Person, and that I have been granted a relationship to that One that is unthreatened by anything whatsoever, certainly not by death.
