A First Meeting

By Wes Vaught

Reprinted from Adi Da

One of the first of those who were drawn to Avatar Avatar Adi Da during the earliest days in Los Angeles was a young man named Wes Vaught, who worked as a proofreader at CSA Press (in Atlanta, Georgia), the original publisher of "The Knee Of Listening."

For years, I had been desperately seeking to make sense of existence. I prayed for help. While studying Avatar Adi Da's Knee Of Listening and contemplating its Truths, the intuition of the silent, free depth of the Heart dawned in me. I had found my Guru, and I began to feel irresistibly attracted to that Graceful Source.

The editor at the press where I was working showed me a letter from "Franklin Jones". In it, He Wrote, "There is not the slightest difference." Those Words stopped my mind. My entire life had been a warfare of differences and opposites, and I felt the profound Freedom communicated in this one sentence. I had to go see Him.

I traveled to Los Angeles and found the way to His home in Laurel Canyon. It was late April 1972. I knocked, and Avatar Adi Da Answered. "Who is it?"

I explained that I had read His book, and that I had felt compelled to come and see Him. Avatar Adi Da opened the door, and I followed Him into the living room.

I felt welcomed into a "Bright" Space, free of any sense of problem. On the walls were Disney posters and sacred images depicting men and women of various traditions. It felt natural to sit on the floor before His Chair. I had brought with me a bag of oranges and pears as a gift. I extended it: "I brought this for You."

He received it with both Hands and with such loving care. Everything about Him was absolute strength, sublime vulnerability, perfect clarity, and delight. Time stood still while He removed the fruits from the bag and arranged them on a little table next to His Chair. Then He Graciously folded the paper bag neatly and tucked it by His thigh.

He received the whole gift!

Looking at me directly and with what seemed like an infinity of loving humor, Avatar Adi Da asked, "What have you been doing with your life?"

I felt the weight of my twenty-five years of waiting for God lift and, with what must have been a ridiculous gush of information, I spilled out my story. I do not know how long I talked. I tried to say everything of importance—all at once!

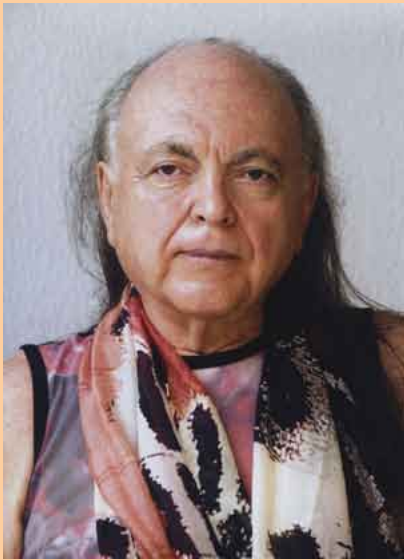

Avatar Adi Da listened. His was not the kind of listening where someone is waiting to say something when it is their turn. His listening became a perfect Intensity and a perfect Silence. At some point, His Silence became the entire import of the moment. I noticed this and stopped mid-sentence.

Sitting up straight, I was overwhelmed with His Blessing Force. Suddenly, I was shaking and breathing extremely deeply in the Current of His Communicated Force. My verbal mind ceased with the immediacy of His Presence.

I felt that Avatar Adi Da was Offering me the perfect opportunity in God, but I felt my gross unpreparedness and the obstructions in me that prevented me from fully cooperating with what He was Communicating. I wanted to get out of the way, but how?

Wanting to remove anything in the way of my freedom, anything that I could lay my

Will you turn to Me—or will you protect “self”?

It is that simple.

Whether to be the closed fist, or else to be the open hand?—that is the moment-to-moment question of life.

Therefore, by always turning to Me, always choose and be the open hand.

hands on, I felt suddenly moved to take off my clothes. I began, and then paused for a moment, feeling foolish, and looked at Avatar Avatar Adi Da as if to ask, “Is this okay?”

With an almost imperceptible tilt of His Head, I felt Avatar Avatar Adi Da Communicate that it was of no significance to Him what I did with regard to clothing. I could suit myself in the matter.

He was most obviously Demonstrating His Divine Mood, clearly Indifferent to any sense of limitation, Shining with Blessing Force, replete with native Freedom and the certainty of unqualified Love, Transparent to the pure, sweet Grace of God.

I took everything off, even the band-aid on my heel, and threw myself face down and full-length at His Feet.

His Feet, somehow, were a perfect point of contact with this Blessing Force. I wept and kissed His Feet, wetting them with tears of relief, joy, gratitude, and also with the anguish that I could not completely let go of myself. Still I tried to surrender, straining with my heart and brain to open more.

But I could surrender no more.

Quietly, Avatar Adi Da lifted His Feet and placed them on my head. All stress left my being. A golden balm of sweet light poured through every cell in my body. A knot opened. I let go, and His brilliant Radiance washed through me. I was Home.

After a bit, I got up, dressed some, and told Avatar Adi Da that I felt that I belonged with Him. He looked at me and Said, “There is something about this Teaching you have not understood. It is about this matter of Consciousness.”

He gave me everything in that moment—a living relationship to an absolute source of Grace, the most profound experience of my life, and the admonition to join Him in free relation to all phenomena. I fell in love with Him. I had begun the life of understanding in devotion to the One Who is that. The principle of my search was obviated and the momentum of my self-contraction, my separative and loveless adaptation, began to wind down.

I asked, “Do You have an ashram?” He said He had established a bookstore and a small center and offered that I could sleep there. From that night, I joined the gathering of people who were studying His Teaching, sitting in formal Communion with Him, and learning to serve the availability of these beautiful gifts.

“The Secret of How to Change”

by the Divine Avataric Master and World-Teacher, Adi Da Samraj

The creative principle of change is the relaxed inspection and awareness of existing tendencies, and persistent, full feeling-orientation to right, new, regenerative functional patterns. If this principle is practiced consistently and in ecstatic resort to Me, the Divine Avataric Master, free growth is assured.

Have no regrets. Resort to Me in Truth and in the present. All that has been done by anyone had its logic in its time. Only I avail. Whatever is your habit in this moment is not wrong. It is simply a beginning.

No habit is necessary—but it is only tending to persist, because it has not yet been replaced by further growth. Hear My Teaching-Word of Truth, and understand what is the right, ultimate, and regenerative pattern of each function of the human body-mind-complex.

Feel free of all negative judgements about what you have done and what you tend to do. Turn with full feeling-attention to the happy ordeal of new adaptation in most positive Communion with Me, the Divine Avataric Master—for I Am The Unbroken (Indivisible and Indestructible) Light That ‘Lives’ you, and I Am The Only One Who Is (Surrounding, Pervading, and Being you, and all, and All).

The Grace of Turning to Me

In July of 2004, Avatar Adi Da began a series of Discourses, which were broadcast live over the Internet from Adi Da Samrajashram (His principal Hermitage on the Island of Naitauba, Fiji) to His devotees all over the world. During these remarkable occasions, Avatar Adi Da answered questions from devotees who were present in the room, but also from devotees all over the world over a speakerphone. In the Discourse segments selected for this CD, Avatar Adi Da Gives potent Instruction in the foundation practice of the Reality-Way of Adidam. By using every Compassionate Means in His Manner—sometimes Humorous, sometimes Fiery—Avatar Adi Da Calls His devotees, again and again, to be sensitive to the Grace-Given and spontaneous heart-Attraction to Him, and to thereby turn to Him, the Divine in human Form—rather than to the endless content of the body-mind, which only reinforces egoic bondage and the illusion of separateness.

This Way [of Adidam] is not about any kind of idealizing of potential, developmental, or evolutionary experience. It is not about any kind of experience at all. It is not about conditional existence. It is not about the potential of the body-mind.

It is about the Realization of That Which Is Always Already the Case. That Which Is Always Already the Case Is the Case. It never ceases to be the Case.
