“Set Yourself and All Others Free”

Avatar Adi Da's Spiritual Embrace and Blessing of both the humans and non-humans is equal and without distinction. In this regard, in His Spiritual Commitment and Vow of Responsibility to protect the non-humans from human interference, Adi Da makes an urgent Call, a Heart-Shout, for an immediate change in the ways humans relate to each other and to all the other beings within the natural world. The present situation of global environmental destruction is rooted in mankind's fundamental rejection of universal spiritual laws, and a resistance to living a truly spiritual life. Unless we realize our fragile position and the fault of our ruthless living divorced from Real Wisdom, and make the great leap necessary for Divine Grace and Love to prevail, no amount of merely human-based conservation projects will realize their good-hearted goal of protecting the natural world from the otherwise hardened heart of man.

Adi Da Samraj:

“To be human is to love, to forgive, to concretely handle all business, to purify, to set oneself and all others free, to generate a circumstance for continued existence that is not time-bound so that you can have time to invest yourself in timeless activities — meditative feeling-Contemplation of the Divine.

Never submit to hatred. This discipline is difficult, yes, it is always difficult. But it is your obligation. See what a wound life is. I Call you to forgiveness, love, acceptance of limitations. This is what love requires. This is what love does... If you enter into this process of self-knowledge and knowledge of another, it will break your heart. It did mine! Yet as dreadful as it is, it is the best thing I ever did. The best thing that could possibly happen to you is for you to become a raw nerve-end, a broken heart, unconsolable, with sorrow on your face and ecstasy as well, no longer a conventional man or woman, no longer able to put on a social face — incapable of it, with no argument, no anger, no feeling rejected, you responsible and you dying, and no absolutes coming to you through the bodies of others.

Everything you console yourself with is a lie. When you get down to the bottom of it, broken-hearted in your distress, maybe you will discover what ‘in love’ is. It is not about what you must do. It is about transcending yourself, about not fulfilling yourself. And it is not amusing. It is passionate and it is terrible.”

Seven Recommendations for Humankind

(Offered by Fear-No-More Zoo of Adidam for all to use. Adapted from and inspired by the Teachings of Adi Da Samraj.)

Don't bother non-humans (or all of nature, including all the ones who swim, run, and fly free, all those who grow in the ground and in the sea, and all the ones who live under our responsible human care)

Don't bother children (or all those still innocent and in need of protection, growth, and safety)

Don't bother women and men (or all the feminine and nurturing, and all the masculine and challenging, aspects of life)

Don't bother yourself (by living apart from others, in fear, sorrow, and anger, or by searching either inwardly or outwardly to escape these)

Don't bother elders (or all of the true sources and resources of genuine, loving, and mature human, non-human, and Divine wisdom)

Don't bother God (by refusing the requirement for mature human self-responsibility with regard to what arises in life, or by reacting merely dependently or independently, rather than being Free)

Remind one another (of these essential things, always)
